

Chief Alfred J. Musco is a 42-year law enforcement officer, who retired from the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office in 2015 after completing a 31-year career. During his career he was promoted through the ranks attaining the rank of Major in 2001. As a Major he held senior executive command assignments in the Divisions of Patrol, Investigations, Training, Organizational Development and Administration.

Chief Musco received his Master's Degree in Criminal Justice Administration from Lynn University in Boca Raton, Florida, a Bachelor's Degree in Human Resource Management and Leadership from Palm Beach Atlantic University in West Palm Beach, Florida and a Graduate Certificate in Criminal Justice and Leadership from the University of Virginia Charlottesville, Virginia.

Chief Musco is a graduate of the FBI National Academy 219th session Quantico, Virginia, the Senior Management Institute for Police Executives 34th Session Boston, Massachusetts, the FBI Law Enforcement Executive Development Program 66th session Quantico, Virginia and the Drug Enforcement Administration Basic DEA Training 36th session Miami, Florida.

During his career, Chief Musco has been recognized by municipal, civic and private entities for his work in community crime reduction programs, police-community relations and community-civic quality of life improvement programs. He has received several municipal and civic awards along with numerous law enforcement commendations throughout his career.

Chief Musco is currently an adjunct professor at several local colleges and universities. He is married with two adult children and a grandchild.